

Hollingworth Friends' scarecrows

The Friends of Hollingworth are holding their first ever scarecrow competition and you never know where one might spring up next!

It goes on until next Friday, July 3, and a map is available of where the straw men and straw women are on the Friends' Facebook page.

Follow the trail and you should see them all in around two hours.

The theme is 'Heroes' and the group say they are delighted with the number of people (scarecrows) participating.

TRAIL: Heroes are the theme.
